Our friendly team are focused on delivering the best solution for you and we take the time to understand your precise home insurance needs.

We take the additional work from you, as we assess the market and recommend an appropriate solution, which means that you are spared the need to deal with call centres and automatic phone call stacking and similar distractions.

We will quote you a premium that we believe is competitive and we avoid confusing offers of percentage discounts or time discounts. We believe that the overall premium cost and value of the cover are the key elements in the transaction for our clients.

We have access to a number of underwriters in the market offering a range of different policies and cover options in this area. Our policies offer standard cover, the option of Accidental Damage, discounts to reflect claim free or low claim experience and optional additional cover sections such as Legal Expenses, Travel Insurance, Identity Fraud Protection, Emergency Helplines and other added value services.

Our value is as a local broker providing a personal touch and time to provide advice and competitive quotations.
